

Interest Growing In Blood Panel Meeting

All Questions To Be Answered Here Friday Night At Labor Temple

Interest is growing in a public meeting here Friday night, July 29, on an expanded Quad-City blood program, and many organizations have indicated plans to have representatives at the question-and-answer session, it was learned today.

While the program is still new to this area, its possibilities have been cited by two labor officials, the Chairman of Commerce and Associated Retailers, presidents and the American Red Cross chapter chairman. The plan is being cosponsored by the AFL-CIO Community Services.

Details of the program are to be explained by Van C. Cox, director of the Community Services, and Miss Elizabeth Sprague of the Red Cross chapter office at the meeting at 7:30 p.m. Friday at the Labor Temple, 2014 State street.

Organizations of all types can obtain full guarantee of blood availability for all their members and their members' families. If 25% of the members give a pint of blood in each year, Cox has explained, individuals also can participate on behalf of themselves and their families.

Difference From Past Program
The plan is viewed as an intermediate step toward a full-scale community blood program, which has several drawbacks, among them that a large goal of contributed pints would have to be met with little direct incentive for persons to volunteer. Another disadvantage of the full program is that it might compete with already satisfactory blood programs.

As outlined by an official, a club or the work force of a retail store, can participate in the plan. Necessary hospital and Red Cross records are maintained, and Red Cross "bloodmobile" mobile vehicles are sent to designated points to take the contributed blood under supervised conditions, he reports.

Lloyd McBride, United Steelworkers of America sub-director, told the Press-Record Saturday that "I know the Steelworkers are wholeheartedly for it, and we will give our support of this kind of program."

"Need For Some Time"
"I'm sure we'll be participating," McBride continued. "It is something we have felt has been needed for some time."

George Kulinski, chairman of the Tri-City Chapter of the American Red Cross, commented that "for many years we have wanted some type of blood program in which all of the local cities would cooperate. We believe this is a step in the right direction toward a program that eventually could cover every person in the Quad-Cities."

Edwin Reide, president of the AFL-CIO Tri-City Trades and Labor Council, told the Press-Record that the program is being (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

1st Strike In 19 Years At National Lead Lasts 12 Hrs.

The first strike in 19 years at National Lead Co. lasted about 12 hours on Friday, and ended when officials of Leadworkers' Local 22785 and the company agreed to negotiate a grievance committee membership issue. The agreement was reached during a brief session of the officials Friday afternoon with M. K. Sheen of the U. S. Mediation and Conciliation Service in St. Louis.

Paul Pace, 2224 Alexander avenue, president of the union whose 150 members are employed in the National Lead Co. plant at 16th and Cleveland blvd., said the strike vote was taken Thursday night at about 10 p.m. and the pickets were set up at the Hoyt plant's two gates at 6 a.m. Friday.

The association of the U. S. conciliator was held at 1:30 p.m. the same day and the pickets withdrawn between 7 and 8 p.m. Friday. The union membership met and voted on the agreement to negotiate.

Both sides said the incident resulted from a misunderstanding over membership on the grievance committee. The company was objecting to equalization of operations in the department whenever a grievance was under discussion.

He said Friday's agreement to negotiate was reached amicably. "The plant and union are known to be able to get along," He added that it was felt that perhaps both sides might have been wrong and the problem could be settled through negotiations.

The union grievance committee negotiations also are underway for replacement of a two-year contract which expired July 15, and the disagreement over the grievance committee was handled by the negotiating committee.

In a new, two-year contract, on which negotiations are proceeding, the union is seeking a reduction from 12 to 10 weeks of vacation. The new contract also provides for a wage increase, two additional paid holidays (Good Friday and Memorial Day) and a wage increase. The average wage scale at present is $2.3 an hour.

At last Thursday's meeting, the 100 members present unanimously sanctioned a strike in the event that negotiations broke down.

Popular Community Activity

Featuring Joe Schirmer, popular pianist as guest artist, and local talent in the lead roles, the Granite City park district will present the opera, "Life of Stephen Foster," this evening at 8 o'clock and again at 8 p.m. tomorrow in Wilson Park to celebrate the annual "Music Under the Stars" program for the summer.

The community program, which has grown in popularity in the past several years, again will be given in an evening setting under willow and white birch trees near the Delmar avenue entrance to the park.

Nearly 500 Quad-Cityans attended the "Music Under the Stars" program in June. In the audience were a number of elderly people as well as younger couples, teenagers and even tots. The variety of the program held the interest of all.

Lawn Chairs, Blankets
Many of those in attendance brought their own folding lawn chairs or blankets to spread on the grass. Park employees, who set up the temporary stage, also provided a large number of the park benches.

Taking advantage of the outdoor program are a large number of persons who just want to be in the park attending the ball games or swimming in the pool, while many go to the park expressly to hear the musical program.

For this evening's program the repeat performance tomorrow evening, a mixed chorus of 25 voices will be directed by Warren Simpkins, vocal music director at Granite City high school. He is being aided by Mrs. Susan Kieckhafer, dramatic director, and Miss Phyllis Stout, piano accompanist.

Police Order Dance Hall To Stop Disturbing Neighbors

"Affirmative steps" to end disturbances, illegal parking and other conditions were ordered Saturday by Madison police in completing an investigation of the Sportsman's Club tavern and dance hall at 1001 Iowa street.

Holding the license, Mrs. Paula M. Prince, responsible for such conditions, the police said they result from large numbers of people attending dances at the building on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday nights.

The chief said his department has received complaints of disturbances inside and outside the establishment and parking violations in the neighborhood for "many months." Arrests were made but have not corrected the situation, and the problem has grown worse, Fraundorf added.

Contacted yesterday on a letter sent by the police to her, Mrs. Prince told the Press-Record that she does not wish to comment on the department's action.

The letter notified her that she must take steps to correct and prevent "situations which are responsible for numerous complaints received by this department," the chief said. He forwarded a copy of all information that has been compiled to the office of Mayor Stephen Maers, ex-officio city liquor commissioner.

"Any further, police reports concerning incidents occurring inside or outside the Sportsman's Club received from this date will be forwarded to the liquor commissioner for his disposition. One of the Madison police cars has been assigned to that area during certain hours and will arrest any and all wherever any violations have been committed in that area," Fraundorf said.

In its investigation, the department interviewed residents of the neighborhood within a three-block radius of the building. Information was taken on "any incidents that were injurious to the peace, health and safety of these people," the police added.

Stop Sign 5 Minutes Late, Driver Finds

Time was the big factor in an auto accident at the intersection of 16th and State streets Thursday, according to one of the drivers.

Miles B. Oetken, 55, of 404 North street drove his 1959 two-door coupe past the blind corner on 16th street at about 10:30 a.m. and struck a southbound pickup truck driven by Warren L. Drake, Belleville, who entered the intersection from State street.

Five minutes later, the street department completed installation of a stop sign at the corner. Oetken told the police he could see the new sign, but would have gladly stopped if the sign had been attached.

The lens door of his auto was caved in. The truck, owned by the Markely Plumbing Co., Madison, was damaged in the front.

Democrats Select Five GC Precinct Committees

New committees for five Granite City precincts were selected yesterday afternoon during a meeting of the Democratic city committee, and Chairman Robert Gibson said final approval is expected within two weeks by the party's county executive board.

Committees named for the four newly created precincts are:

Precinct 23 in West Granite, R. D. Able, 2410 West 20th street, is retired.

Precinct 26 in the Wilson Park area, Terry Francis, 2629 State street, local realtor and an assistant supervisor for Granite City township.

Precinct 28 in the Glenview area, Nelson Hagauer, who resides on Saratoga avenue, is a refinery employee and also is an assistant supervisor for Granite City township.

Gibson said a new committee for Precinct 15 also was named to replace Werner Born, who is moving to a new home outside the precinct boundaries. The new committee is J. C. Conway, 2451 State street, an industrial engineer for Granite City Steel Co.

The city chairman said that during yesterday's meeting at the VFW hall, a proposal was discussed for a county Democratic headquarters in Granite City next month to prepare for the November election. He said the project was well received by the local committee.

Gibson said that a final decision rests with the party's county executive board.

Gibson, who also is president of the Illinois Young Democrats organization, gave the committee a report on the recent Democratic national convention.

New $142,908,280 GC Figure; $226,890,005 Total In 3 Townships

With a 1950 Granite City township assessment of $142,908,280 announced today by Assessor Von Dee Cruse, the Quad-City's new grand total on assessed valuation is $226,890,005. The amounts are still subject to revision by the Madison county board of review.

The new area-wide total is $3,313,875 greater than the final 1950 Quad-City valuation of $223,576,130. Granite City township is up $2,307,460 from $140,004,820 to $142,908,280; Nameki township is up $464,725 from $21,034,610 to $21,499,335; and Venice township is down $54,310 from $22,536,700 to $22,482,390.

The Nameki and Venice assessments were announced earlier this summer, and the assessor's books for the two townships were taken and city time to Edwardsville for processing in the county treasurer and board of review offices.

Books Turned Over To County
Cruse's staff completed its work Friday and the books were taken to the county court house that day, he reported. He noted greater cooperation by the public this year in providing information to the deputy assessors, and said this enabled the work to be completed ahead of a year ago.

A Press-Record tabulation late this morning showed that the new area assessed valuation of $226,890,005 consists of $100,385 in town and city time, $93,434,480 personal property, $32,992,900 real estate lands and $29,787,640 in locally-assessed railroad property.

Most of the railroad property is assessed by the state and paid at the county offices after completion of the books by township assessors.

Madison Girl, 5,
Hurt Seriously
When Hit By Car

A small Madison girl, who was struck by an auto near her home last Thursday, was among the five persons hurt in three of the area's 15 traffic accidents over the weekend.

Christine Vaughn, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vaughn, 1846 Fourth street, was in satisfactory condition Friday after undergoing surgery resulting from injuries suffered when she was struck by a car in front of her home Thursday at 4:30 p.m.

Taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital, she was treated for bruises to the right side and leg and later transferred to Cardinal Glennon Hospital, St. Louis, for an operation Thursday night for removal of her spleen.

The drivers of the auto, Mike Sikora, 47, of 807 Grand avenue, told Madison police he was driving west on Fourth street when the little girl darted across the street in front of his car about 30 yards from the Washington
Hospital intersection.

He was charged with reckless driving and released pending bond Aug. 6. He posted his driver's license as bond.

The girl is in satisfactory condition today and is continuing improve.

Three Hurt On Route 35

Three persons suffered injuries at 12:30 a.m. Saturday in a collision of autos on State and Route 35, two miles west of Route 137. One of them, Donald D. Wyatt, 26, Collinsville, was charged by state police with driving in the wrong lane.

Troopers said Wyatt was going south on Route 35 and David
M. Rothenberg, 17, Collinsville, was driving east on the highway.
After the Wyatt car allegedly swerved and sidestepped the other vehicle, it went out of control and overturned.

Rothenberg was alone in his car, and Wyatt's passengers were Thomas W. Lucas, 24, Box 64, Maryville, and Ronald Mal-witz, 24, Collinsville. Malwitz escaped injury.

Wyatt, Rothenberg and Lucas were brought to St. Elizabeth for treatment. Lucas suffered an injury to the left knee, and an x-ray was scheduled.

Passenger Injured

Mrs. C. W. Hoy of Troy was injured Friday evening when an auto in which she was riding struck a utility pole in the 1900 block alley between Delmar and Edison avenues. The report shows she struck her head on the rear view mirror. The driver,
C. W. Hoy, Rural Route One,
Troy, and another passenger escaped injury.

Police said they were told by Wyatt that he was leaving a drive-up window and ran over a small child. As he looked back, the car struck the pole.

Retail Merchants Leader Joins Those Urging University Bond Issue Passage

Among those joining the plea for passage of the state university bond issue this November is Joseph Meek, president of the Illinois Retail Merchants Association.

Favoring both the university and the welfare bond proposals, Meek says that arguments against passage of the bond issues do not stand up in the face of the proven need for far more education and welfare facilities immediately. "We cannot educate an individual later and use an institution later; the demand exists now," he has commented.

Aside from the bond proposal — which would be paid for from presently existing taxes, with no tax increase — there is no other means to secure the needed funds under "our archaic state constitution," Meek believes. Only alternatives would be an income tax or a higher sales tax or a real estate tax "so high as to be immediately and conclusively prohibitive," he asserts.

The remarks are interesting in view of the state which retail stores have in each community's welfare, and the pressing need for more adequate facilities without unnecessary additional tax burdens. Supporters of the bond issue proposal include citizens from all walks of life, including labor, business and industry.

Council Meetings Place For Discussion, Not Inactive

There is a saying that if the facts are in your favor, speak firmly but softly. If it is a borderline case, pound the table. If the facts are against you, stand up, pound on the table and speak loudly. Such tactics are easy to spot, and it is unfortunate that they have begun appearing with increasing regularity at Granite City council meetings.

The council sessions have long been noted for split votes and wide differences of opinion. While in some cases this has slowed the work of the council, it has enabled a free interchange of opinions and the discussions often have been informative. They have led to sound decisions in many cases.

When rules of gentlemanly conduct are discarded as has occurred at recent meetings, it is hard to conclude other than this — that it is hoped to stifle opposing arguments by drowning them out with invective. Any arguments put forward by a council member certainly can be countered by another member if he has the facts to make an effective explanation. When bullying occurs, it can only be assumed that the opposing comments are feared because possibly they are correct.

If ever there was a place for bullying tactics, the council chamber is not it. The unfortunate thing is that some council members seem to be taking the line of least resistance and are avoiding direct conflicts with the more vociferous aldermen by voting as urged.

Survey Will Help Determine Merits Of Uniform Transportation Proposal

The Bi-State Development Agency is fortunate in being able to retain a firm that has just completed a three-and-a-half-year transportation study of the St. Louis area.

Much of the basic information on metropolitan area transportation already has been obtained, enabling the report to be extended to include the Illinois side with a minimum of time and cost. There has been much discussion of a unified transportation system serving both sides of the river. Whether such a plan is feasible is not known at this time, but the survey to be carried out by W. C. Gilman and Co. should go a long way toward providing the answer.

More Emphasis On Competitive Bids Noted, Records Show Big Savings

Increased emphasis on seeking of sealed competitive bids has been noted this year in the Madison school district. Based on experience in other districts, this is certain to result in savings for Madison taxpayers and more value received for their tax dollars.

Business practices of school districts are important because, among other reasons, they are the largest local government agencies in terms of the size of their budgets and levies.

When the Granite City school system embarked on a determined program to place purchasing under procedures fair to all bidders, it was felt initially that some areas could best be handled by negotiated purchases. Arguments were presented on various phases of school supplies but, one by one, experimental steps have shown that there are few, if any, areas that cannot benefit from competitive bidding.

In some cases, the nature of the product requires special rules, but it has been found that specifications can be written to meet such special needs. For example, perishable goods occasionally must be obtained between board meetings, and market changes on them occur rapidly. Yet, even in such fields as that of meat, it has been possible to inject competition and the inevitable savings.

Estimates are that several percentage points have been saved on an overall average since greater emphasis on sealed bids was started in Granite City several years ago. Obviously, with millions of dollars being spent each year, several percentage points represents a sizable amount of money. Such savings shown in either reduced spending or in greater services performed by the taxing district.

Conservative estimates indicate that the savings already have amounted to tens of thousands of dollars.

Freezing Of State Projects Unnecessary When Budget Is Kept In Line With Revenue

A year ago, when the Illinois legislature appropriated for more projects than state revenue warranted, Governor Stratton "froze" $76,000,000 in new construction programs.

With the state operating on a two-year fiscal period, he said he would release some of the funds within the first few months and then would take a look at the state's financial situation at the end of the fiscal year to see how much more could be released without impairing the budget.

With the new year starting, the governor this month released some of the frozen funds, including $2,800,000 for Southern Illinois University. However, many projects, of necessity, are still being delayed.

The $400,000 allocated toward establishing a state park at Horseshoe Lake has been promised by the governor but not yet received for the project. Exact "temperature" of this frozen item is uncertain.

"Passing the buck" to the governor not only gives him less discretionary power, but also lodges heavy responsibility on him for wise use of that power. In a sense, the big appropriation deprives the state legislature of its ability to decide which projects should be carried out first.

While the best is being made of a bad situation, it seems clear that the legislature will have a responsibility at the next session beginning in January to vote only the amount of spending that the state can afford, since that is all the spending that can result.

Venice Road Budget Gets Final Action

The Venice township road and bridge fund budget for 1960-61, totaling $26,190, was taken up at a public hearing Friday in the township office in Madison, and in the words of Supervisor Arthur W. Moore, "Not a whisper of dissension was heard."

There was no one at the hearing other than officials, and Highway Commissioner Frank Kimack called for final action. The measure intact was adopted.

The newly-approved budget shows an increase of $3605 over last year. Main factors in the increase are the additional sums of $7233 for road maintenance and $2018 for road oiling.

Brakettes Edge Blues 1-0 In Exhibition Softball

2500 Watch World Champions Slip Past St. Louisans At Wilson Park; Thurmurs Win

"There is nothing like a dome," goes the opening line of one of the numbers from "South Pacific," and the estimated 2500 fans who found their way to Wilson Park's softball diamond Thursday night to witness an exhibition softball game between two of the nation's top women's teams might well have sung the same tune.

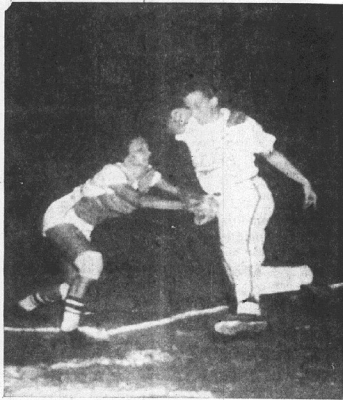

The Raybestos Brakettes, defending Amateur Softball Association world women's champions from Stratford, Conn., and the St. Louis Blues, defending ASA women's western regional titlists, hooked up in the first game of a doubleheader sponsored by the Granite City Kiwanis club for charitable purposes.

The outcome—a 1-0 victory for lack of sending the contest into the Brakettes—was a bit inconsequential to more than a few of the male members of the largest crowd in several years at the park, some of whom were more interested in "vital statistics" than they were in batting averages. But if the game did not put a bee in someone's bonnet as far as the organization of at least one women's softball league in Granite City, then perhaps one purpose for staging the game has been overlooked.

The Brakettes, well-groomed themselves and well-touted to the finer points of the game by Manager Vin Cullen, left little doubt in anyone's mind as to why they have been world champions for two consecutive seasons.

And the Blues, who play well each time they come across the river to Granite City, it seems, gave the national champions all they could handle for seven frames and came within an ace.

DECISIVE PLAY in a game involving the world's women's softball champions here Thursday night occurred in the fourth inning. The St. Louis Blues, a team including local residents, lost to the champion Brakettes 1 to 0. Here the Blues suffered a setback when their third baseman, Rita "Snooks" Hennessey, was tagged out at the plate by Brakettes catcher Mickey Macchetto, thus making the decisive play in the game. The Blues' manager, Vin Cullen, is seen in the background. Miss Hennessey had walked and advanced to third on a single by Ellen Sappington.

tingled and doubled before the hometown audience. Thurmurs scored once in the second and again in the fifth.

The ball park, sporting a new permanent outfield fence, play area and new side-line fencing and seating accommodations for 900 which were filled before the first game. Park Board President Barry Lomann and members of the board were introduced, and Mayor Leonard Davis, more than a casual sports fan himself, presented Brakettes Manager Cullen with an "All-America City" welcome banner. A color guard from VFW Post 1500 posted the colors atop a new flagpole in centerfield.

Both women's team managers commented on team accommodations, the playing field and the size of the crowd. Blues Manager Lorraine Burke told one

Briggs Team A-T-T-Winning In Tavern Loop Action

Briggs Tavern knocked off highly-rated Green Hall in a high-scoring Sunday morning game in the Slow Pitch Tavern league, making it ten victories in a row without losing a game.

In its 19 to 12 win, Briggs showed the losers with 23 hits while in turn being pelted by 16 hits.

Paul Thompson and Sonny Mims made up the winning battery. Gene McMurtry and George Amish went for the loss.

In the wild scoring melee, Briggs' Gus Lignoul went five for five with a pair of doubles. Picher, Paul Thompson three for four, including a four-bagger; and Don Crabtree and Paul Hoffman hit a home run apiece.

For the Green Hall team, Joe Skowron hit safely twice in four trips to the plate, one being a four-bag blast. Carl Linhart went three for four with a double; Bill Page also lapped out three for four, including a home run and an outburst to deep.

Polish Hall, in the tightest game of the day, squeezed out a 2-1 victory over the Blues. In the hotly contested duel which ran 11 innings, Polish Hall got 12 hits to the Blues' nine. Nick Asperger pitched for the winners, while Wally Tutka, catching. For the losers, it was Ed Buzar hurling, with Buckley Stearns on the receiving end.

Sportsman's Club member Bookies Homestead by a 7 to 3 score and outburst to deep by 14 to 10 hits. George Vivod and Bill Cavin were the winning battery, while Joe Webb, pitcher and Ralph Bravley performed for the losers.

Click and Edith swalloped the Jolly Mill aggregation 10-5 behind the pitching of Harold Thebeau. Stanfill caught. Frank Barnett and Harry Jordan went for Jolly Mill.

For the winners, it was Johannimmer with a round-trip and Modrac and Morris each walked a double. Al Bilolet of Jolly Mill had three out of four at bat, including a double.

In two rain make-up games played at a nearby location, Sportsman's whipped Polish Hall 9-3 with 16 hits and no errors to the Blues' five hits and two errors.

Park Playground Tournament Winners

Playground directors in the Granite City park district's summer recreation program today announced the names of winners of playground contests held through Friday. The announcement followed final tabulation of contest scores.

At Marshall school in a hat contest, Mary Ellen Bryer and David Sumpter were Mites division winners. Gloria Sprank and Mike White won in the Mites division and winners from the Junior division were Kathy Sanders and Al Crider.

At Emerson school in a bean bag toss, Diana Barnett and Wayne Hawkins were Midge winners, and Bonnie Williams won in the Junior division.

Later, a bike parade was held. Mary Lou Hubert and Clyde Mize were winners of the title of "best bike." Best trick award went to Carl Schmidt.

Logan school presented a pet show. The largest dog was owned by Phyllis Carlsbach. Exhibiting the largest cat was Terry Polom. The smallest dog was owned by Elizabeth Brantley and Ronnie Donaldson tied with Phyllis Donaldson and Patricia Donaldson for the smallest cat honor.

Linda Hancock was winner of the Spickard stand up under the pressure of swinging bats for about two and a half minutes. Before substitute Don was called in to put out the fire. He lasted less than a frame before, too, was benched in favor of Ray Rosenkranz, who finished out the approximate five and a third remaining innings of the game.

For the losers it was Don Bruce behind the plate for four, followed by Clayton Harrison for three and Bob Rogier for the final inning of play.

Angloff was credited with the win for the Blues, while Spickard was nipped with the loss.

Three-run Homer by Dick. A smashing highlight of the midweek feud came in the third inning. Two men were feeling their bases when the Blues' Bill Diak came to the plate and blasted a home run, bringing in three runs.

Later, in the fifth, Diak took to the air again, but the time settled for a triple with no one on.

Other Blues' stars covering themselves with diamond dust were Don Crabtree, who in his five trips to the plate slapped out three hits, one a booming triple; Dick Ryan, who hit two for three; John Notrusis, also two for three; and Harland Zobrist, two for two.

Yesterday's game now belongs to history and the long memorized experts who like to show their stuff on quiz programs.

For their benefit, the Blue division's five-run margin of victory tied the 1958 record win of 7 to 2, also a five-run margin.

Reds Pulverized Early By 18 Hits, Commit Five Errors To Enemy's One

At the risk of saying "we told you so," we will proceed to do so: The Blue division did it again—won the annual All-Star Inter-city classic at Marvylle yesterday by the triumphant score of 9 to 4.

In compiling their third straight victory, the Blues had 18 hits and one error to the Reds' eight hits and five errors.

The game was decided in the last half of the third inning, when a six-run spree by the Blues gave them a 7-3 lead. The Reds had tied the score in the top of the third after an opening inning tally by the Blues.

Rally Fails Short. The Reds made it 7-3 in the fourth, but the Blues moved ahead 8-3 in the fifth and 9-3 in the seventh. The losers' final run was scored in the ninth as a rally fell short.

As predicted by Olle Miller, manager for the Blues, Andy Angloff started off on the mound for the winning contest, but in three innings was touched for only two hits. He was followed for two innings by Harold Manley, who gave up three hits, and then by Vernon Thomas and Frank Gallus, each giving up a pair of hits apiece.

Catching for the Blues were Don Womack, going for five innings, and Ed Ficker, who pocketed the pellet for the last four frames.

Relieve Starter. For the Reds, starting pitcher Tom Spickard stood up under the pressure of swinging bats for about two and a half minutes. Before substitute Don was called in to put out the fire. He lasted less than a frame before, too, was benched in favor of Ray Rosenkranz, who finished out the approximate five and a third remaining innings of the game.

For the losers it was Don Bruce behind the plate for four, followed by Clayton Harrison for three and Bob Rogier for the final inning of play.

Classic Still In Deadlock; 3rd Shutout By Hagnauer

Millie & Mickey's and Spengler Oil remain deadlocked in a two way tie for first place after Saturday night's action in the Classic league.

But Spengler got its victory over the Blues, shutting out the Ravens 2 to 0. Millie & Mickey's won 7 to 0 over Legion Post 113 when their team proved a "no show" and forfeited the game.

Nelson Hagnauer, pitching for Spengler, hurled his third consecutive one-hit shutout. The only safe play against him came in the fifth frame. Walt Wilson did the catching chores.

Hitting three-base hits for Spengler were Jack Scarborough and Art Borchers. Going for doubles were Don Dillard and Catcher Wilson. All the Spenglers were made in the fifth and sixth frames.

Nary a plate pitched for the Ravens, with Jack Haug on the receiving end.

The winning battery for Lincoln was John Lapinski, who gave up four hits from the mound, and Eddy Costello, who was behind the plate. For Moose it was Bill Page pitching and Andy Angloff catching. Page gave up five hits.

An annual Granite City school cafeteria report for 1959-60 showed today that receipts totaled $376,951 for the period. Except for an accounting of surplus commodities, which showed a deficit if commodities used were considered at current market prices, a net gain of $17,873 was made after deducting costs of $166,827 and expenses of $162,251.

Costs during the period of Sept. 8, 1959 through June 10, 1960, consisted of $197,408 for food and milk, less a net gain of $581 in inventory, $12,318 to $12,900.

Under expenses, the labor figure of $145,444 was the highest item included in the total of $162,251.

New and replacement equipment amounted to $4,084, and consisted of two portable tables and benches, $415; small equipment for the 17 cafeterias, $415; and sink equipment, $111.

Other expenses were: supplies, $382; operating expenses, $1,872; repairs and installation, $527; and freight for government commodities, $349.

Surplus commodities valued at $45,812 were used during the year, and the amount of such commodities on hand rose from $5071 at the start of the year to $14,260 at the end of the year. With an actual net gain of $17,873 during the year, but $45,812 in commodities used, there would have been a loss of $27,939 except for the food supplies, the report concluded.

1962 Deadline On Home, Farm, Business GI Loans

World War II veterans have two more years in which to obtain Veterans Administration-guaranteed homes, farm and business loans.

Robert M. Fitzgerald, acting manager of the VA regional office in Chicago, said today that President Eisenhower has signed a bill just passed by Congress which extends the July 25, 1960, cutoff date to July 25, 1962.

Also, under this new law, both World War I and World War II veterans can continue to apply for direct loans from the federal government if they live in designated rural areas where GI loans are not obtainable from local lending institutions. In Illinois, veterans in larger communities have not been declared eligible for direct loans.

Some replenishment of funds for direct loans was authorized in 1959.

New expiration date for the guaranteed loan program for World War II veterans and for the direct loan program for both World War I and Korean veterans is July 25, 1962.

Since it was started in June 1944, the GI loan program has guaranteed more than five million loans to World War II veterans, totaling $41 billion, and to amounting to nearly $9 billion.

Since the county tax went into effect here on Oct. 1, 1959, receipts have been as follows: October, $10,150; November, $9,948; December, $9,940; January, $8,865; February, $8,871; March, $11,923; April, $11,105.

Authorization for counties to levy the one-half per cent tax on all sales was given by the Illinois legislature last summer, and 49 county boards have voted to place the tax in effect as of the April report.

Of the 49 Madison county's April receipts were seventh highest. This county was topped by DaPage county, $47,522; Cook, $32,380; Peoria, $21,399; Will, $12,344; Lake, $11,999; and St. Clair, $11,811.

Funds received by the county from the county retailers' occupation tax act represent the net collected after deduction of 25 per cent by the state for administrative expenses of handling the receipts.

Of the amount forwarded to the Madison county treasury, 10% is being set aside for construction of a county juvenile home, 20% for improvement of the county courthouse and 20% for renovation of the county jail.

Another provision will allow the VA to guarantee a loan so long as the application is received prior to the new terminal date.

Formerly, the law provided VA had one year in which to issue its evidence of guaranty. This amendment will allow the guaranty of loans submitted before the terminal date when, because, the loan cannot be completed within one year.

$8,268,317 For Area State Hospital In Ill. Bond Issue

Alton State Hospital is slated to receive $8,268,317 for urgent construction and rehabilitation projects providing the $150,000, 600 state welfare building bond issue is approved in November.

A listing of urgently needed capital improvements at 22 of the 26 institutions operated by the Illinois Department of Public Welfare was released today by Gov. William G. Stratton.

The list was submitted by Otto L. Bettag, M.D., state welfare director.

Dr. Abraham Simon, Alton State Hospital superintendent, said the money earmarked for Alton would be used for physical plant improvements.

Substantive examples of probable utilization of funds were outlined by A. K. Smith, hospital business administrator.

He pointed out that one of the immediate needs under the bond issue should be the building of a new acute medical and surgical hospital.

"If that project is completed," he said, "the present acute hospital will have to be demolished for other purposes." Smith noted that the need for infirmary-type buildings to accommodate "elderly" patients is pressing.

"In view of the over-crowded conditions on these wards for the aged," he continued, "two new infirmaries would have high priority on the list of essential."

The present dietary facility is overtaxed by 100% and is in need of new equipment and layout, he said.

County Sales Tax Receipts Reach $71,322

Revenue received by Madison county from the half-cent county sales tax in unincorporated areas has risen to $71,322 with the inclusion of $11,105 on April tax liability, it was announced today.

Since the county tax went into effect here on Oct. 1, 1959, receipts have been as follows: October, $10,150; November, $9,948; December, $9,940; January, $8,865; February, $8,871; March, $11,923; April, $11,105.

The May term Madison county circuit court grand jury may be recalled for three days about Sept. 6, Gene Bergloff, circuit clerk pro tempore, said Friday. The recall is mainly for routine business, unless for this time of the year, he said.

New Construction Drops For Week To Low of $21,116

Total value of new construction permits issued in Granite City during the third week in July plunged to the lowest in the month. Fifteen permits totalling only $21,116 compared to the previous week's figure of $305,128.

The week's total was $28,315.

So far this month, City Building Inspector Earl Bloomquist and City Clerk A. L. Stevens have issued commercial and individual permits totalling $354,759.

To construct a four-room-and-bath dwelling at 2238 Jefferson avenue, a permit was issued to Laura Benson. Cost of the wood siding building will be $6850, to include a carport.

Home improvement permits issued last week numbered 13 with a value of $11,766. They went to the following:

Dudley Forsythe, $68 for a garage at 1709 Edison avenue; William Baldassare, $1500 to install aluminum insulation at 2848 Iowa street; James W. Pritts, $1500 for room addition and general repairs at 2608 Lincoln avenue; Leonard Ketterison, $1200 for a garage at 2342 Woodlawn Lindell Blvd.

Lottie Postar, $2500 to remodel and add storage space at 3102 N. 10th street; Carl W. Harrison, $500 for a garage at 2133 Woodlawn avenue; William N. Hinkle, $300 for general repairs at 2251 Cleveland Blvd.; J. R. Snelsen, $150 for a patio roof at 1610 Lindell Blvd.

Thomas Peppers, $3000 for a two-room addition at 2335 Rock on "The Value of a Dollar" at the Thursday meeting. He pointed out that it was simply good business to make a well-planned proper will automatically solves a lot of legal problems of protecting the estate.

In the past four years, more than $2000 has been contributed to the Boy Work Committee from profits of group-sponsored gum ball machines. It was reported by Chairman Fred Werner. A check for $55 was presented by Werner at the meeting, representing the group.

Some 40 members attended the meeting, with Frank Rae presiding. Klops, Bebalto, county chairman reporting the conclusion of her committee.

Plans will be outlined for a series of workshop conferences with other county agencies to be sponsored by the council in conjunction with Southern Illinois University, which will provide discussion leaders. Also included on the evening's agenda is a forum on the proposed establishment of a public health department for Madison county, which will be referred to the voters this fall.

G. W. Hoelscher of Granite City is a member of the executive board.

County Social Planning Board Meets Tonight

The executive board of the Madison County Social Planning Council will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the First Presbyterian Church parlor, Fourth street and Lorenz avenue, Wood River, with Rev. Walter Burke, president, in charge.

The follow-up phase of the White House Conference on Children will be discussed with Mrs. Lester Klops, Bebalto, county chairman reporting the conclusion of her committee.

GC Police Are Hosts For County Group Meeting

Members of the Granite City police department were hosts for the monthly meeting of the Madison County Police Officers Association, held Thursday afternoon at the Rose Bowl restaurant. Housing Situation Acute At SIU, Carbondale

Students wishing to enroll at Southern Illinois University this fall may have trouble finding a place to stay, J. Albin Yokie, SIU coordinator of housing, warned today.

University housing for both men and women has been filled for some time, he said, which means that students who have been waiting for a place to stay will have to find off-campus vacancies in Carbondale or the surrounding area. The number of these diminishes daily, Yokie said.

Women students especially will have difficulty finding a place to stay, he said. Of the 350 supervised off-campus houses, only 70 or 75 rent to women. However, a weekly list of home owners having rooms to rent is prepared weekly by the Housing Center and is available to students.

mobile trailer on a lot at 2236 Bryan avenue was Elmore Young. Estimated value of the trailer was $2500 and it will be equipped with electricity, water and sewer facilities.

Noonday Optimists Plan Boat Excursion Friday

Plans for a Mississippi River "Thunderbird" this Friday were worked into near-final state at the Thursday meeting of the Noonday Optimists here.

A club spokesman said the trip will start at St. Louis and head north to Alton, then return. Some 50 couples are expected to make the cruise, which in addition to sightseeing will feature a supper and dancing.

Three local optimists groups will participate: the Tri-Cities Bar Association, spoke on "The Value of a Dollar" at the Thursday meeting. He pointed out that it was simply good business to make a well-planned proper will automatically solves a lot of legal problems of protecting the estate.

Window Smasher Turned Over To Youth Services

The bike rider who lobbed a brick bat through a plate glass window July 18 at the Big Washburne Landronat, 2011 Rock road, has been identified by Granite City police and released to the Co-ordinated Youth Services. It was announced Friday.

Because of his mental condition, the youth will be sent to an institution for treatment. Holder of a long record of offenses, he also admitted breaking a plate glass window at a house at 2239 Illinois avenue owned by Bill Kester on June 29.

Women students especially will have difficulty finding a place to stay, he said. Of the 350 supervised off-campus houses, only 70 or 75 rent to women. However, a weekly list of home owners having rooms to rent is prepared weekly by the Housing Center and is available to students.

Giant Cucumbers Grown By Granite City Couple

A casual visitor to the garden of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Snyder, Rural Route One, might think it was a bad year indeed for water-melons. But closer inspection of the waxy green vegetables growing along the ground would show their true identity to be—giant cucumbers.

Proudly displaying two of the super pickles Friday one weighing two pounds 15½ ounces, Mrs. Snyder explained that nothing was used to inspire the cucumbers to greatness.

"We just used store-bought seeds," she said. "We hardly even hoed, just pulled out the weeds from time to time by hand."

The garden is on low valley ground along a canal ditch near Rock road, about two miles from downtown Granite City. One of the larger weights two pounds 15½ ounces.

Now they have more cucumbers than they know what to do with. Too big to fit intact in any pickle jar, Mrs. Snyder has been giving them away gratis to the neighbors. Also, "We eat them fried, raw, and every other way," she said.

Mr. Snyder has been employed by Granite City Steel Co. the past 39 years.

By Press-Record Staff Photographer
DISPLAYING TWO GIANT CUCUMBERS grown in his garden along Rock road is J. F. Snyder of Rural Route One, a steel mill employee, who said the larger weights two pounds 15½ ounces.

Two Youths Receive Emergency Treatment

A sharp object in the bottom of a drainage ditch cut the right foot of Gene Joyce, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Joyce of 2743 Sunset drive, on Thursday while he was wading. Taken to the emergency room at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 9:30 p.m., he was released after four sutures were applied.

John Ashlock, nine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ashlock, 1440 Madison avenue, also received four sutures Thursday after he fell at home while playing. The fall lacerated his right elbow. He was treated at 10 p.m. and released.

Both Drivers In Crash Say Signal Was 'Go'

Both drivers involved in a collision Thursday evening at Niedmighaus and Madison avenues told police the traffic signal was in their favor.

The motorists were Fred P. Schuman Jr., 2850 Grand avenue, who was driving south on Madison avenue, and Thomas O. Sparks, 2636 East 27th street, who was going east on Niedmighaus avenue. There was damage to the right side of the Schuman car and to the right front of the Sparks auto.

$112,974 U. S. Aid For GC Schools' 59-60 Maintenance

Granite City schools will receive $112,974 in federal aid for maintenance and operating expenses during the fiscal year just ended, the school district has been informed.

The first payment for the 1959-60 fiscal year will be $84,700, due to be received at the same time will be the final payment for the 1959-60 year.

The new aid amount is up $10,922 from the 1958-59 entitlement of $102,042, of which 95% or $96,940 is available for maintenance and 5% of the original allocation will be paid.

The maintenance and operation aid is available under Public Law 874 which provides funds for federally-impacted areas. Such areas are determined by the number of pupils whose parents work at non-taxpaying installations or industries, such as the Engineer Depot and industrial defense projects.

With $79,984 already paid for 1958-59, the remaining $16,956 is being forwarded along with the $84,700 for 1959-60. If the entitlement is paid at 100%, an extra $25,244 will be received.

Miss Mitchell Studying In Hawaii This Summer

Miss Dorothy Mitchell, 2323b Washington avenue, is presently doing graduate studies on "Hawaii and Its People" at the University of Hawaii summer session. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Mitchell, 2827 Madison avenue.

More than 800 students are enrolled—some 2000 coming from the mainland, representing every state and the District of Columbia. Twenty-two foreign countries are represented.

More than 250 courses are being given by 280 visiting and resident faculty members. Most popular courses among mainland students are in Asian and regional studies, and physical education classes in judo and board-surfing. A dozen institutes and workshops for teachers are enrolled to capacity.

The Student Activities Office directs a program of activities for after-class hours—craft sessions where students learn coconut hat weaving, Japanese vegetable carving, or Japanese flower arranging and connoisseurship; tours to Oriental temples, museums, sugar mills, pineapple fields and canneries and Pearl Harbor; concerts, recitals, lectures, and symposia; glass-bottom boat and catamaran rides; and coffee hours, dances and luaus (native feasts).

The campus, located in Manoa Valley, Honolulu, overlooks Waikiki.

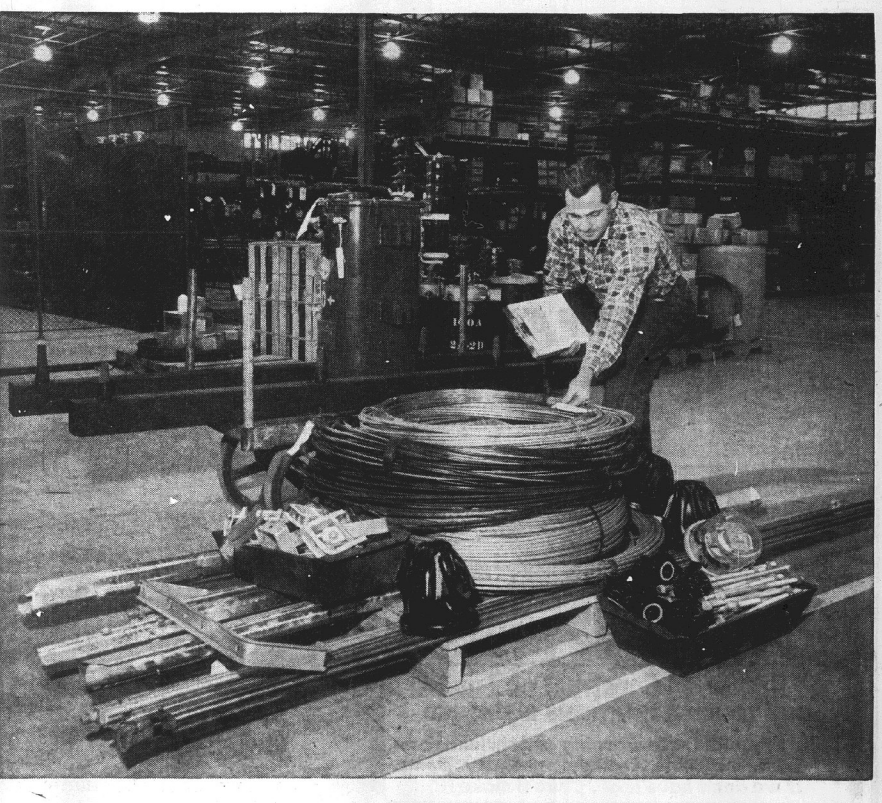

Contracts For Highway Overpasses Awarded

Contracts for construction of two bridges over Canteen Creek and a grade separation structure carrying Sand Prairie lane over Federal Aid Route 70 were awarded last week. E. A. Rosenstone, director of the department of public works and buildings reported. The projects are part of the state's $2½ million road construction program.

Steel for the two three-span parallel bridges to be built over the creek, on Federal Aid Route 70 approximately 2½ miles west of Collinsville, will come from U.S. Steel Corp., American Bridge division, Chicago, at a cost of $132,442. It will be constructed by Gorman & Sons, Inc., East St. Louis, for $334,682.

Allied Structural Steel Co., Chicago, on a bid of $55,625, will provide the steel for the grade separation structure to be built approximately three miles west of Collinsville; while S. J. Groves & Sons Co., Springfield, will build it and channelize and resurface the pavement on Sand Prairie lane at the intersection with Routes 40 and 66 at a cost of $608,522.

There are few dark and gloomy days ahead for the folks who have learned to spread sunshine.

Catholic Charities: All Family Agency

"Your agency is handling three times the normal caseload," said a state supervisor last year, told Mrs. Lorraine Parkinson, general assistant at the Quad-City Catholic Charities.

However, the comment came as no surprise to Mrs. Parkinson. For as long as she has worked at the United Fund-supported agency—five years—its handling of every type of welfare case from child adoptions and marriage counseling to emergency relief has kept the 2012 Delmar avenue office filled and the staff of four busy.

With over 25 persons seeking assistance from the agency each week, Mrs. Parkinson estimates approximately 3000 persons were aided last year, counting individual members of a family. Catholic Charities' three main areas of service are assistance in child placement, family case work and counseling, and relief aid.

Because the agency is the only one in the area licensed by the state to assist in child adoptions, much of its time is given to the selection of homes before placing a child and then guidance for the adopted parents once the child has been placed.

Specialist In Adoptions
Supervising adoptions is Mrs. Mary Alice Beardslee, a part-time worker and holder of a master's degree in social work, who, before she came to the local agency ten years ago, was a child welfare worker for the city of St. Louis.

In addition to aiding in adoptions, the agency counsels any children referred to it, selects foster homes for children whose own family, through death or emergency, is unable to care for them, places other children, one or both of whose parents have died, in children's homes such as the Convent of the Good Shepherd, in St. Louis, and works with probation authorities of Madison county in placing some youngsters in correctional institutions.

Mrs. Parkinson, who counsels all children other than adoption cases, said among the 150 child welfare cases handled last year, representative one occurred when a mother of four small children was stricken with tuberculosis and sent to a sanitarium. To assist the father who was away at work most of the day, the agency sent workers to the home to cook, dress and oversee the children.

In another incident, a Granite City couple was called to a court hearing in Edwardsville and needed someone to care for their three children, ages 1½, 4 and 7. In desperation, the parents called the Catholic Charities office where Mrs. Parkinson and Miss Karen Grobowski, the office secretary, brought the children to stay all day.

Family Counseling
The second area of service—family counseling—covers a wide area including pre- and post-marriage counseling, supervising in financial budgeting, aid to unwed mothers, counseling of parents whose children are in foster homes or an institution, aid to alcoholics and general referrals, such as to a relief office, mental or physical health clinic.

Last year about 125 persons in 47 cases sought family counseling service, 85% of whom were non-Catholic. For couples seeking further guidance with marriage or family problems, Rev. Charles P. Mulcrone of St. Joseph's Church, the agency's assistant director, and Magr. William J. Cassin of Springfield, diocese Catholic Charities director, are available.

Family case work, Mrs. Parkinson explained, takes a great deal of time. Some couples have been coming for counseling for over two years she said. In the same area, the agency has been supervising the budget for a local family for over a year after the father pleaded for help in handling of finances. For another couple, unable to read or write, Mrs. Parkinson reads all correspondence and writes all letters.

Emergency Relief
For relief, the third service area, Catholic Charities last year spent nearly $7000 in medical, food, clothing, rent and transportation aid. One example the alert, responsive assistant recalled concerned a transient family driving from California to Wisconsin. Their "trundled-up" old car ran out of gas in Granite City, police arrested them for having improper license plates, they were hungry but had no money for either the fine, gas or food. Through the agency's help they paid the fine, ate, filled the gas tank and were off for Milwaukee where the father hoped to find a job.

Counseling and administration is done mainly by the full-time work of Mrs. Grobowski and Mrs. Parkinson, while Mrs. Beardslee is available whenever an adoption case is involved. Father Mulcrone is at the office every morning and for appointments and Monsignor Cassin comes whenever needed.

To help sort clothing donated to the agency, five women volunteers come regularly, and more offer their help from time to time. The United Fund supplied about three-fourths of the agency's 1959 budget of approximately $40,000, the remainder coming from the county and state for child care.

Gretna Green is a village in Scotland near the English border where many runaway marriages once took place.

Charles P. Mulcrone of St. Joseph's Church, assistant director. Counseling, economic aid and assistance in child adoptions are part of the agency's welfare work.
